Dear Sir,

Deane Church - Bells.

We are much obliged for your letter of yesterday's date informing us that accommodation has been arranged for our bellhanger and he will accordingly call at the Sexton's House upon arrival on Monday next, the 14th inst.

A lorry of British Road Services collected the necessary tackle on Friday last, the 4th inst., and may-be this has now been safely delivered to the Church.

Yours faithfully,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "John Taylor & Co.", with a long, sweeping flourish extending to the right.
